Discussion Program of Secondary School Principals

During the past several years the Missouri Association of Secondary School Principals has been sponsoring discussion meetings in which administrators and teachers have participated. These discussion meetings have sought to clarify sound principles of secondary education. During the past two years the discussion meetings sponsored jointly by the State Department of Education and the Missouri Association of Secondary School Principals have dealt largely with the new courses of study now being used in the high schools of Missouri.

Curtailment of transportation facilities makes it impossible to schedule similar discussion meetings this year, however, it would seem unwise to abandon a program that has had much to do with the progress of secondary education in Missouri during the past few years. In fact, there are many reasons why it is more necessary for us to share our ideas and experiences now than ever before.

In many of the high schools of Missouri, particularly in the smaller ones, more than fifty per cent of the teaching staff were not teaching last year. Some of these new teachers are from other states, others have reentered the profession after several years absence. Neither group is familiar with the philosophy of education which guided those who prepared the courses of study they will be expected to use. Old teachers as well as new ones are confronted with the problem of adapting courses of study to wartime and post-war demands. To develop educational programs that prepare youth for victory and the post-war period requires the pooled judgment and experience of all teachers and administrators.

Although it will not be possible to hold group discussion meetings this year, the Missouri Association of Secondary School Principals will attempt to further the development of "A Dynamic Program of Education for the Youth of Missouri" in other ways. Principals will be encouraged to hold frequent meetings of their faculties for the purpose of discussing the type of educational program victory and post-war conditions require. All educational groups will be asked to devote a part of any meeting held to a discussion of the type of educational program that will insure the survival of the democratic way of life. A discussion questionnaire will be used in an effort to discover how teachers in particular learning areas are adjusting their programs to meet new and changing conditions.

The following District Coordinators have been appointed to direct the Discussion Project of the Association this year: Northeast District, T. L. Noel, Superintendent of Schools, Louisiana; Northwest District, Charles M. McClard, High School Principal, Maryville; Southwest District, Howard M. Terry, Superintendent of Schools, Pierce City; Southeast District, Eugene M. Carl, High School Principal, Dexter; Central District, Dean Walter Cooper, Dean of the Junior College, Jefferson City; Kansas City District, Cecil Jenkins, High School Principal, Center; St. Louis District, D. G. Nibeck, High School Principal, Wellston.

Of course there is! He pervades every inch of our gaily decorated store ... and we need him, this year more than ever, to cheer the hearts of the giver as well as the recipient. What feminine heart doesn't feel a glow of joy in giving or receiving a gift of dainty lingerie, a cosy housecoat, a lovely handbag or a clever bit of jewelry!

Or perhaps your own spirits need a lift . . . so play Santa to yourself with that fur coat or glamorous new dinner dress you've been wanting.

... Try the Alka-Seltzer A·B·C Cold Comfort Method . . .

Alka-Seltzer. Take it to comfort the headache and that "acheall-over" feeling.

Be Careful. Get more rest than usual, dress wisely, stay out of chilling drafts, get your daily quota of vitamins.

Comfort your throat, if it's raw and raspy from the cold, by gargling with Alka-Seltzer. Just dissolve two Alka-Seltzer tablets in half a glass of warm water. Use this soothing gargle—often.

Subject-Teacher Welfare Progress During War Times

Discussion leader for panel No. 1—Lloyd E. Grimes, Superintendent of Schools, Eldo Subject Divisions:

- 1. The problem of tenure during this war period. Discussion of whether now is the time to urge a continuing contract law and provision through local rules and regulations for security in service, Lloyd E. Grimes, Superintendent of Schools, Eldon
- 2. Are salary increases keeping up with the cost of living? Are salary increases sufficient to maintain teachers in service? Are communities "willing" to tax themselves to the limit to maintain service? Milton Garrison, Superintendent of Schools, Milan
- 3. Is the time not ready for an aggressive campaign for teacher retirement as a mean of assuring them security? R. E. Nichols, Superintendent of Schools, Malden
- 4. The interrelation of tenure, salary, and retirement in making a satisfied, effective, democratic teaching force, O. W. Brown, Superintendent of Schools, Steelville

Subject-Adequate Finance for Public Education During the War Period

Discussion leader for panel No. 2—George D. Englehart, Superintendent of Schools, Leadwood

Subject Divisions:

- 1. What part should the Federal Government take in meeting this critical financia 13th & situation? Should its contributions be for special services or for equalization or for both? George D. Englehart, Superintendent of Schools, Leadwood
- 2. Why must the state continue to bear a considerable proportion of the cost of education? What factors lead us to assume that the proportion of the total cost of education borne by the state must continue to rise? R. W. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools, Neosho
- What factors seem to indicate that the percentage of the total cost of education borne by the local unit is bound to decrease? Chas. McMillan, Superintendent of Schools, Slater
- 4. Summarize the emerging responsibilities of the Federal and the State governments for public education indicating what relationships may develop in the future as far as control and support are concerned. S. M. Rissler, Superintendent of Schools, Trenton

SAVE WASTE FATS ... SAVE GAS

We on the home front must serve and conserve for victory. It's our job to Conserve rubber, buy War Bonds, Save Scrap and to USE GAS WISELY. Gas is vital to war production and we must conserve it in every way we can. You, individually, might only save a little gas, but when you multiply this amount by the millions of gas users all over the Nation it's a mighty important figure in war production. Use what you need, but don't waste it.

LOANS FOR TEACHERS

$9.75 a month repays $100 loan in 12 months

NEED SOME extra cash to meet an emergency? If you have a steady teaching position you can borrow at Household Finance quickly and privately. You may repay your loan in monthly instalments that fit your own income and situation. If there is no Household Finance office near you, you may obtain your loan by mail.

No endorsers needed
You need no security of any kind to borrow $20 to $300. We rely on your simple promise to repay. No endorsers or guarantors are ever required. We do not question friends or school authorities about your credit.

Total cost of $50 loan $4.48

Charges are made only for the time you have the money. The sooner you repay the less your loan costs. A $50 loan repaid in six monthly instalments of $9.08 each costs only $4.48. The six monthly instalments of $9.08 each costs only $4.48. The cost of a $100 loan repaid in six instalments of $18.15 each is $8.90. Payments shown in the table include all charges. You may choose the payment schedule that suits you best. Please apply for your loan at the nearest Household Finance office. Or send the coupon for full information about borrowing by mail.

To help families stretch their incomes Household has published a series of practical booklets on buying and budgeting. Scores of schools use this material in their home economics classes. Ask for sample copies.

As a result of war industries and soldiers in training, hotel facilities are limited. Teachers who definitely know they can attend the meeting should make reservations as early as possible and utilize rooms to capacity.

The Convention Bureau of the Kansas City Chamber of Commerce is now actively at work the problem. The Bureau suggests that you proceed in one of the two following ways: on the problem.

- (a) By writing the hotel direct requesting reservation. If the hotel can make the reserva-tion, they will confirm it to you. If the hotel cannot make the reservation, they will refer it to the Convention Bureau, who will write you and place you to the best of their ability.
- By writing the Convention Bureau of the Kansas City Chamber of Commerce, 1028 Baltimore Avenue, to make reservation for you. (The Bureau's phone number—Victor 6688.) Regardless of which you do be sure to inclose the following information:
- 1. Choice of three hotels in order of preference.
- 2. Type of accommodation wanted-single, double, or twin-bedded room.

- 3. Rate desired and the maximum that will be paid.
- 4. Day and hour of arrival and probable time of departure.
- 5. Name of person or names of persons to occupy room.
- 6. If designated hotels are full, do you want the Bureau to place you in another hotel, within your specified rate?
- If no hotel facilities are available, would you accept accommodations in private home?
   (This may not be necessary, but it was deemed advisable to prepare for it.)

You would probably get more efficient service by writing direct to the Convention Bureau of the Kansas City Chamber of Commerce, 1028 Baltimore Avenue, Kansas City, Missouri.

ACTION

The times demand that our public schools make every contribution to the war effort. The teaching profession has no place for jealousies, rivalries, and petty bickerings. Cooperative action is essential.

AMENDMENT No. 5

As you will recall, the Missouri Supreme Court on Saturday, October 17, upheld Judge Blair's permanent Injunction and proposed Amendment No. 5 did not appear on the ballot in November. Let us remember that previous efforts with respect to this proposal have not been in vain and that we must continue to clarify the misunderstandings that have been and will be created by its sponsors. A similar proposal in one form or another again will appear. You should know that your Association played its part in planning the Court action and in the execution of those plans.

SCHOOL EXPENDITURES

A statement often heard is to the effect that schools have too much money. Let us now inform our patrons that any increase in school expenditures in Missouri during the last ten years may be accounted for by the items of tuition and transportation alone. Have you shown them the degree to which increased state support for your school district has been offset by reduced local taxes?

READING CIRCLE

Reading Circle sales will this year set an all-time high. Credit is due many, particularly the County Superintendents of Schools.

MEMBERSHIPS

With the shifting about in the profession, increased effort is required if all teachers are to be members of the Association.

PUPILS READING CIRCLE

Services Given by the Reading Circle

Selection—The 1100 books listed have been carefully chosen by members of the Reading Circle Committee of your Association.

Convenience—Books from sixty publishers are listed. Schools are saved the time and expense of many separate orders and separate payments.

Keyed to Courses of Study—Every book listed has been keyed in the order blank to the New State Courses of Study. Teachers can tell at a glance where each book may be used effectively in teaching a unit of work.

READING CIRCLE SALES

Rates are available for other age groups.

Can It be Kept Indefinitely?

Yes, for as long as membership is maintained in the Missouri State Teachers Association and premiums are paid. The rates and benefits are not affected by changes of employment or residence.

How Safe is This Insurance?

One of the soundest legal-reserve companies underwrites the insurance. All claims, 229 in number, have been paid without delay.

What is the Conversion Privilege?

A member has the privilege of converting or changing Group Life Insurance, without a medical examination, into an individual life policy at standard rates.

How Much Has Been Paid in Benefits?

Over $765,000 since 1927.

Please write EVERETT KEITH, Secretary, Missouri State Teachers Association, Columbia, Missouri, for a free application blank and full information.

George Kohrman of Hannibal was named supervisor of trade and industrial education in the State Department of Public Schools on October 12.

Mr. Kohrman has been coordinator and supervisor of diversified occupations in the Hannibal public schools.

He succeeds E. F. Daniels, who has recently gone to the U. S. Army Air Depot at Camp Wellston, Macon, Georgia, as an instructor.

What You Buy With WAR STAMPS

In the expensive business of fighting a war, a dime's worth of oxygen may seem like an inconsequential item, yet that much oxygen is enough to keep a bomber pilot alive for 40 minutes in the high altitudes reached by today's war planes. When operating at such extreme ranges, the lives of the pilot and his crew, as well as the safety of his plane, depend upon the unfalling supply of this precious gas which makes up for the deficiency of oxygen in rarefied air.

Your purchase of War Savings Stamps may not add up to the hundreds of thousands of dollars needed to buy one of those high-flying bombers, but every time you invest in a 10-cent Stamp, you are providing money for the oxygen without which our great air fleets would be practically useless. Your Schools at War program will help show you the importance of buying War Stamps regularly.

STUDENTS AID IN REGISTRATION

Student Council members of the Maryville High School assisted the Faculty members of the Public Schools at the Northwest Teachers meeting on October 15 and 16 in serving as registrars for M.S.T.A. membership registration.

INSTITUTE ON WORLD AFFAIRS

Announcement that the Institute of World Affairs would hold its 20th session at the Riverside Mission Inn, from December 13 to 16, was made recently by President Rufus B. von KleinSmid, of the University of Southern California and chancellor of the institute.

This year's event will feature the general theme of "The World Crisis and Reconstruction" in its addresses, round tables and panel discussions. More than 100 academic, diplomatic, and public officials will participate.

ENGLISH COUNCIL NOT TO HAVE MEETING

The Thanksgiving meeting of the National Council of teachers of English, scheduled to be at Atlantic City, will not be held this year. The Council will continue all other work, however, and asks for the cooperation of all members in making the coming year a successful one in spite of omission of the meeting.

We can do what they ask by attending and helping in the district and state meetings and by continuing our membership in the Council.

-Ruth Bynum, Missouri member of Public Relations Committee

NATIONAL RADIO DEBATE

The National Radio Debate is sponsored jointly by the National University Extension Association's Committee on Debate Materials and Interstate Cooperation and Town Hall, Inc.

The proposition for debate is Resolved: That a federal world government should be established.

George V. Denny, Moderator of "America's Town Meeting of the Air" is chairman. The affirmative speakers are Clyde Eagleton, Professor International Law at New York University, and Vernon Nash, Executive Director of the National Peace Conference.

The negative speakers are Malcolm Bingay, Editorial Director of the Detroit Free Press, and David H. Wills, Director of Information for the British Supply Council in Washington, D. C.

This year's broadcast will be given Thursday evening, November 12, 1942 beginning at 7:30 p.m., Central War Time. The program will be broadcast by the Blue Network.

Printed copies of the debate may be secured from the American Education Press, 400 South Front Street, Columbus, Ohio. The price is 10c per copy.

CIVIL AIR PATROL CADETS

Formation of a young people's volunteer aviation corps—Civil Air Patrol Cadets—has been announced by the Office of Civilian Defense. The organization will parallel the senior Civil Air Patrol. Cadets will study navigation, meteorology, radio, and other aviation subjects—but not flying. On completion of their training and graduation from high school they will be eligible to the Civil Air Patrol, where 18 is the minimum age for flying assignments.

FLAG SALUTE

The West Virginia Board of Education has been ordered by a federal court to cease requiring a flag salute by students who are members of Jehovah's Witnesses or any others who have conscientious religious scruples against such salutes.

MINIMUM SALARY LAWS

There are now twenty-four states and one territory where minimum salary laws are in effect. State-aid in seven additional states helps to determine salaries of teachers. Between 1940 and 1942 minimum-salary standards have been raised in thirteen of the twenty-four states.

BE GENEROUS TO JAPANESE

The Federal Government is supporting schools for the education of Japanese children in the segregation colonies established in the state of Arkansas. The minimum weekly salary of the lowest grade elementary school teacher in the schools maintained for these Japanese children is $24.23. The minimum weekly salary of the upper grade elementary teacher in these schools is $31.15. THE AVERAGE WEEKLY SALARY OF TEACHERS, PRINCIPALS AND SUPERVISORS IN THE PUBLIC ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS IS $11.23.

HATCH ACT

A victory for the citizenship rights of teachers seems assured as the Brown Amendment to the Hatch Act goes into the home stretch. The amendment, supported by the National Education Association and the National Commission for the Defense of Democracy through Education, will remove certain obnoxious federal controls from teachers who are paid in part from federal funds. Passed by the U. S. Senate and the House of Representatives in slightly different forms, the Amendment is now in conference for reconciling minor differences.

Note:—As this issue goes to press word has been received that the President has signed the measure.—Editor.

NURSERY SCHOOLS

By specific act of Congress July 2, 1942 in Public Service Law 651, Congress appropriated $6,000,000 to be spent for nursery schools under the auspices of the WPA. These schools will be provided for the children of mothers who are employed in the war industry. Previously a budgetary allocation from the appropriation made under the Lanham Act made available $6,000,000 for operational costs of schools in war industry communities. A substantial portion of this amount may be used for nursery schools. The federal government is not always parsimonious when it provides educational opportunity. There are fifteen states in which the total current expenses of the public school system are not more than $12,000,000 per year.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF JUNIOR COLLEGES CANCEL ANNUAL MEETING

The American Association of Junior Colleges has decided to cancel its annual meeting this winter, according to vote of the Executive Committee of the association just announced at Washington. Instead of the one national meeting previously scheduled for St. Louis March 4-6, six regional meetings will be held at points convenient to junior college administrators in the areas covered by the six regional junior college organizations.

THE SOCIAL STUDIES

IN WARTIME AMERICA National Conference to be Held in New York City

When teachers of the social studies from all parts of the country gather in New York City during the Thanksgiving holidays, November 26-28, they will participate in the formulation of a statement on the role of the social studies and the social-studies teacher in wartime America. A preliminary draft of this statement is now being formulated by a nation-wide Commission on Wartime Policy, headed by Howard E. Wilson of Harvard University. Members of this National Commission from Missouri include Dr. Elmer Ellis, University of Missouri, and Dr. Julian Aldrich, Maryville State Teachers College. The Commission was appointed in early October by Roy A. Price of Syracuse University, president of the National Council for the Social Studies.

The Thanksgiving conference will constitute the twenty-second annual meeting of the National Council for the Social Studies.

For full information, including an advance copy of the program, write to Wilbur F. Murra, Executive secretary, National Council for the Social Studies, 1201 Sixteenth Street, N.W., Washington, D. C.

MANY MAKE USE OF SOUND FILM

Since the release of the first prints of the 16 mm. sound film "Backing Up the Guns" thousands of Missourians have had an opportunity to see it. Both written and oral reports reaching this office indicate that the film is of real value and meets a great need in public relations for local schools.

The 35 mm. five minute sound version for use in theaters has been used extensively. It has been used for an entire week's run in a town such as Springfield (Gillioz theater), and other places.

The 16 mm. fifteen minute version or the 35 mm. five minute version may be booked for use in your community by writing to your Association. There is no charge for the use of the film except for postage.

MATERIALS OFFERED ABOUT AUSTRALIA

To meet the heavy demand from teachers for study material on Australia, the Australian News and Information Bureau, 610 Fifth Ave-Australian nue, New York, N. Y., has produced, and is offering without charge to teachers and school libraries a course of study for intermediate school grades, an outline of a study course on Australia suitable for clubs and senior grades, and a handbook on Australia.

The intermediate study course contains nine maps, and presents a course of study intended to cover from four to six weeks. The course has been planned to include as many as possible of the fundamental concepts necessary to understand Australia.

A suggested list of reading for teacher back-ground is given, and visual aids—films, slides, and film strips—are listed, with the organization from which they are available.

These publications will be sent to any teachers requesting them, without charge.

MARYVILLE LAUNCHES ROUND TABLE PROGRAM

Northwest Missouri State Teachers College has launched this fall, for the first time, a special program known as the President's Round Table. It is designed according to Uel W. Lamkin, president, to develop the art of conversation, and to give opportunity for the administration and students to discuss problems of the two groups. Thirteen students have lunch each Wednesday as guests of President Lamkin at the private college dining room. They may invite one other guest.

The Senate chooses three of its own members to attend three consecutive meetings and chooses another seven members from the whole student body to attend only one meeting. They may invite a faculty member or specialist to each luncheon.

President Lamkin says, "No resolutions are drawn and no conclusions attempted. Everyone says what he or she thinks and will not be quoted. Nothing said affects the action of the administration or of the Student Senate officially, except as individual opinion affect such.

The dinner captain sets the subject of conversation. Such subjects range from "College Walk-Out Day" to "Higher Mathematics and Aviation.

INFORMATION ABOUT NEW BOOKS

Because of our Government's request that tires and gasoline be conserved—and that railroads be used as sparingly as possible —many Library Meetings will not be held this year and next.

To many librarians, this will, undoubtedly, prove a very real loss. However, we can guarantee that our various catalogs will provide all libraries—both large and small—with a dependable guide and aid in making the best selections possible for both adult and juvenile readers. All books recommended in these catalogs may be ordered-

TEACHER'S KIT FOR A STUDY OF RAILWAY TRANSPORTATION

A "Teacher's Kit" for a study of railway transportation in the grade schools is announced by the Association of American Railroads. The Kit consists of a 56-page Teacher's Manual, 56 railroad pictures, and a 72-page booklet entitled "The Stories Behind the Pictures.

The Teacher's Manual contains several pages of suggestions for organizing transportation units in primary and intermediate grades, a chronology of American railroads, an address list of the principal railroads of the United States, railway mileage and other statistical data, and a bibliography of story books, text books, reference books, histories, readers, songs, poems and music pertaining to engines, trains and railway transportation generally.

The pictures, each about 10¼x7½ inches in size, are in loose form and are printed on one side of the paper only. They may be mounted on cardboards, hung on the wall, or passed around among the children.

The Kit is being distributed free of charge to superintendents, supervisors, principals and teachers upon written requests. Address: Association of American Railroads, Transportation Building, Washington, D. C.

New Books

New Practical Chemistry, Revised Edition, by Newton Henry Black and James Bryant Conant. Pages 683 plus x. Published by The Macmillan Company. Price $2.20.

This textbook gives chemistry its true place as one of the basic factors in human progress by showing the principles of chemistry at work among men. It is characterized by simplicity, thoroughness, and sound pedagogical approach, and at the same time places constant emphasis upon the relation between chemistry and social welfare and progress.

Radio Programs Intended for Classroom Use, by Carroll Atkinson. Pages 128. Published by Meador Publishing Company. Price $1.50.

A brief summary and evaluation of three previous volumes by the same author. Valuable for present reference work and to the research worker seeking facts about the beginnings of radio as an educational tool.

This America—Our Land, Our People, Our Faith, Our Defense, by Howard E. Wilson, Nelle E. Bowman, Allen Y. King. Pages 209 plus viii. Published by American Book Company.

A book describing the four basic factors in American civilization—the land, the people, the faith, and the defense of the United States in the critical events of these early 1940's, providing the content for study in short overview and "refresher" courses in civic life. It is intended to serve the men and women now engaged in America's defense who want a brief, clear picture of what it is they are defending, as well as being useful as a basal or supplementary volume for secondary school classes in American history and modern problems.

The Brave and Free, Stories and Poems selected by Barbara Nolen. Pages 438 plus ix. Published by D. C. Heath and Company.

This Book VI of the series Reading for Interest, contains stories and poems representing all parts of the Western Hemisphere, and particularly the different regions of the United States, chosen to make children want to keep on reading and to furnish material for curriculum centers at this level. Continuous development of interests, range of experiences, and reading techniques provide a balanced program.

Other Lands and Other Times, by Mary G. Kelty. Pages 416 plus vii. Published by Ginn and Company. Price $1.32.

Using history as the basic interweaving thread, various aspects of the social sciences including institutions, ideas, and customs of functional importance are discussed. The progress made by man from the Stone Age to the beginning of modern times is traced. Much space is devoted to the lives of the common people in the many civilizations discussed.

Recognizing the need for stress on health education, the authors and publishers are offering the American Health Series, a separate book for each grade, 1-9. The aims, meanings, and trends in modern health education have been considered in the approach and instruction. The conception in this series of the major position of health education in the modern school curriculum naturally means and results in a close integration or correlation of health education with other curricular subjects.

The Way of Life Series—Keep 'em Flying, by Henry L. Williams; Timber, by James Stevens; Quicksand, by Mary Simkhovitch and Elizabeth Ogg; Talking Wires, by George P. Oslin; To the Colors, by Lt.-Col. R. Ernest Dupuy, U. S. A. and Lt. Trevor N. Dupuy, U. S. A.; Captains of the Sky, by Squadron-Commander Albert H. Munday; Warriors of the Sea, by Rear Admiral Yates Strling, Jr. Pages from 64 to 72 each. Published by Row, Peterson.

These books telling of the work of an aviation mechanic, life in a lumber camp, the way of life in the slums, the telegraph industry, life of an army officer, the way of life of a military aviator, and the way of life in the U. S. Navy, are only a few of a large series translating the stories of the various occupations into actual experiences. They are short enough to be read through at one sitting, yet cover the subject thoroughly.

Methods of Teaching in Town and Rural Schools, by E. L. Ritter and L. A. Shepherd. Pages 492 plus xiii. Published by the Dryden Press, Inc. Price $2.40.

A book written with the view of establishing sound principles of teaching in the minds of its readers, and to give practical guidance to teachers in the various subject-matter fields and adapted to the different levels in the elementary school. Included also is a minimum of study materials, and suggestions on teaching practices.

Applying Good English, by Henry Seide! Canby, John Baker Opdycke, and Margaret Gillum. Pages 430 plus xvi. Published by The Macmillan Company.

The emphasis of this book is on the appreciation of language as a means of expression. Problems of student interest have been selected and discussed in terms students can understand, and constant opportunities are provided for the use of the spoken word. A special feature of this book is its careful attention to the problem of individual differences.

COMING OF THE WHITE MAN by G. A. Reid

EUROPEAN SAILING vessels appear for the first time before the eyes of the North American aborigines. They may be the ships of Columbus or of later expeditions to land along the eastern shore of our Continent. Whatever the occasion, it symbolizes one of the great events of history. A new world discovered; new migration of population; political, religious and economic forces to be readjusted.

This is the starting point of history for many pupils in the elementary grades. It is portrayed with great force and poetic charm by the famouspainter, Reid, in his picture "Coming of the White Man," to be found in the set of Artext Prints, adopted for study in the Missouri Elementary Schools for the year 1942-43 mentary Schools for the year 1942-43.

Orders for this material and all other supplementary material for carrying out the work of the Courses of Study should be sent to Missouri State Teachers Association Everett Keith, Secretary Columbia, Missouri Send for our P. R. C. order blank.

THE MASTER CRAFTSMAN

T ODAY WE BUILD our houses Craftsmen we must be, Careful, accurate craftsmen, We build for eternity.

Today we lay the foundations On which tomorrow the house must stand; We must build foundations firm From the materials we have at hand.

Today the windows open wide New light falls within the halls; The greatness of the earth outside Is held within new walls.

Today, tomorrow, may be years
But craftsmen we must be
And with the Master Craftsman's help
We can build for eternity.

To the Teachers of Missouri:

This is no ordinary war and no ordinary crisis, but probably the greatest turning point in human destiny to date," said Elmer Davis, director of the Office of War Information, in a recent enumeration of tasks with which this war charges our educational institutions.

A proper regard for the significance of the events through which we are passing is essential to those who are called upon to assume totally new duties and fundamentally to readjust the old.

In the days ahead, teachers will be asked to do more with less. They cannot spare themselves. The extraordinary duties war brings to them are real and will often be inconvenient and disheartening. Many who have long taught in fields where they are best prepared must accept a call temporarily to other subjects.

Some will have to take more classes more pupils—in a day than they have ever had before. Additional duties may be forced By A. C. FLORA President, NEA by the lack of proper financial support for education, but they are more likely to be dictated by the serious reduction in the ranks of teachers themselves.

Thousands of our colleagues have answered the call to the colors. Others have entered essential war industries. The drain on the profession has been heaviest from the field of the physical sciences, mathematics, and the vocational skills—precisely those fields from which the military forces and the war industries call most insistently for trained personnel.

This personnel must be furnished if we win the war. Teachers must supply it. There are no other persons qualified to do so. Where specialized teachers are lacking, others must step into the breach.

The war continually calls for more community services related to the prosecution of the war. There will be more rationing programs at which to labor. The salvage campaigns, the conservation campaigns will increase in intensity as the war progresses.

The vital programs of morale building; the maintenance of health and recreation programs, calling for nurses' aides, for community clinics, and for extension of the knowledge of nutrition, will depend upon teachers for leadership and participation.

king,

In spite of the additional responsibilities which war imposes upon teachers, the long-time program of education as an instrument of civilization cannot be abandoned nor neglected. The multiplicity of war activities will cease with victory. The schools must go on. Their contribution to peace is even more fundamentally important than it is to war.

The framework of our evolving educational system must not be permitted to break down. The schools cannot adequately serve democracy unless the opportunity to secure education of a reasonable quality is extended to all American children. This waits upon participation of the federal government in the financial support of schools. Teachers will need to work toward this goal, even in this emergency.

In specially serving their country in wartime, and in continuing an institution consistent with democratic ideals and the conditions of peace, teachers are asked for all that they can give. However, there is danger that previous energy may be wasted through lack of unified plan and organized effort. Never before has the profession so needed its organizations as it does now. To protect the individual teacher from the imposition of trivial and unnecessary burdens, to secure for her adequate financial compensation from the only source where it is available, to uphold the long-time program of education, the profession needs unprecedented solidarity.

The strength and the integrity of the profession is on trial. Every teacher who has not joined his local, state and national associations should do so at once, and keep informed of what the associations are doing, holding themselves in readiness to cooperate as the organizations move toward their objectives.

EIGHTIETH CONVENTION:

W HEN THE MEMBERS of the Missouri State Teachers Association meet in Kansas City December 2-5, for the annual convention, it will be the eightieth event of its kind for your Association.

President E. A. Elliott has built the convention program around the theme The Unfinished Task. The program, therefore, is planned to help our teachers to better understand the role of the schools in this global war and also their part in preparing for a permanent peace.

In these crucial times it is imperative that our total efforts be utilized in winning the war and perpetuating our way of life. The convention program makes it possible for teachers to exchange valuable ideas, relate worthwhile experiences, coordinate plans of action and in general promote educational thought that will truly make our schools in Missouri the tremendous resource that they should be in this time of crisis.

Schools are not being run "as usual." Changes are being made every day in order that wartime needs may be met. Your attendance at the convention will make it possible for you to contribute your experiences and ideas, through departmental meetings and discussion groups, to your fellow workers.

Also, your attendance will afford one of the most direct means by which such national leaders as Lyttleton B. P. Gould, Special Assistant to the Chief of Naval Personnel, Major General Lewis B. Hershey, Director, Selective Service, Howard C. Dunn of the War Manpower Commission, and others, may bring to your attention ways and means whereby you and your school may contribute a greater share toward winning the victory for which we are striving daily.

UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI

1943 SUMMER SESSION

June 14—September 3

CALENDAR

June 14—Monday, registration for twelveweek term and for first sixweek term

June 15—Tuesday, class work begins July 23—Friday, first six-week term

July 24—Saturday, registration for second six-week term

July 26—Monday, class work begins for second six-week term

September 3-Friday, summer session closes

The resources and facilities of the University of Missouri have been utilized to the end that the institution may continue to render maximum service to the people of the state and at the same time may contribute in full measure to the national war effort.

The accelerated program makes it possible for a student to earn forty-eight hours of credit each calendar year by attending the eighteenweek semesters and a twelve-week summer session, as compared to a maximum total credit of forty hours under the old program of study. Under this new plan it will be possible for a student to enter the University immediately upon graduation from high school and graduate two years and eight months later.

The 1943 Summer Session will be organized as a twelve-week program. Two six-week terms will be arranged in some divisions of the University for students who do not find it feasible to remain in school the entire twelve-week period.

In all divisions work will be available which will lead toward the various degrees customarily granted by the University. In addition to this program there will be an extensive range of specialized projects, courses, and services directly related to the war needs. These will include enlistment in the various service reserves and specialized training to meet demands.

Teachers will have opportunity to study the many problems confronting public schools. The many changes in the program of the schools will create great need for specialized teacher training in certain areas. The 1943 Summer Session program is being planned to make a full and timely program of teacher training available.

These war times emphasize the need for intelligent planning and adequate training. Inquiries about the summer session are invited.
